CRAIG SKINNER

HEAD COACH • EIGHTH SEASON

Since being tabbed Kentucky's head coach in December 2004, Craig Skinner has rejuvenated the Kentucky volleyball program into a national prominence once again. Skinner has directed the Wildcats to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments - a feat only 16 other schools in the nation have achieved. That run includes two Sweet Sixteen appearances in the last three seasons. Furthermore, the Wildcats have captured 17 or more victories in all seven seasons under Skinner's direction, including tallying 20 or more wins in four of the previous five seasons.

He became the fastest coach in school allure to total 100 career victories in just his fifth season, and is the only coach in program history to advance to postseason play in each season at the helm.

Eight players have garnered All-America distinction, while UK has hauled in 27 All-Southeastern Conference honors in his seven seasons - including the 2008 SEC Player of the Year, 2006 SEC Freshman of the Year, 2010 and 2011 SEC Libero of the Year and the 2005 SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

The Wildcats have enjoyed unprecedented success which has included a school-record run of 31 consecutive weeks ranked in the top 25 of the American Volleyball Coaches Association poll, record-breaking attendance marks and a three-time host of NCAA Tournament play including serving as one of four host sites for the 2011 NCAA Regionals. UK is again on deck to host the NCAA Regional rounds in 2013.

Prior to Skinner's arrival, the Kentucky volleyball program had not experienced a winning season in the previous five years and had not made an NCAA Tournament appearance since the 1993 season. In just one season in the Bluegrass, Skinner led the Wildcats to a 17-12 record and their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 1993. For the team's accomplishments and quick turnaround, Skinner was named the 2005 SEC Coach of the Year.

In 2006, Kentucky posted a 19-12 record - its most wins since the 1993 campaign - and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after toppling No. 20 Ohio in the opening round. The Wildcats took perennial power Florida to five games for the first time since 1988 and knocked off No. 18 Tennessee in Lexington. The win over the Lady Vols was significant as it marked the first time UK toppled a ranked foe in 66 attempts dating back to Sept. 24, 1993.

Skinner in his third season then achieved something no other UK volleyball coach had ever done - he led his team to a third consecutive NCAA appearance after another improved season. The Wildcats went 22-10 and toppled another ranked opponent in No. 18 LSU on national television in Lexington on its way to a fourth place overall finish in the conference.

The Wildcats emerged as one of the best teams in the nation in 2008 reaching the AVCA national polls for 10 consecutive weeks, including finishing the year with a No. 22 overall ranking. Kentucky posted 26 victories, including a school-record 17 wins in the SEC. Skinner's squad finished second in league standings, the best finish for the school since 1990. Included in that extraordinary conference run was a five-set upset victory over No. 12 Florida in front of the fifth-largest crowd ever to witness a volleyball match at Memorial Coliseum.

Additionally, the Wildcat program took another big step under Skinner's direction when Lexington was selected as a host site of the 2008 NCAA Tournament First and Second Rounds. The selection solidified Kentucky as a program no longer on the rise - but, as one of the teams others will have to contend with for years to come.

Several Kentucky players achieved impressive honors, including junior Sarah Rumely who was named the 2008 SEC Player of the Year. With the honor she became the first player in UK history to win the award voted on by league coaches. Rumely and senior Queen Nzenwa were All-America honorees and led a record-breaking five UK players on All-SEC ballots.

The 2009 season signified the Wildcats had officially arrived on the national scene. The Blue and White opened the season rated as the No. 21 team in the country and remained in the polls during every week of the season en route to a 29-5 year and the first Sweet Sixteen appearance under Skinner's direction. UK was selected to host the First and Second Rounds of the national tournament for the second consecutive year, and the Wildcats knocked off the tournament's No. 13 seed in Oregon to advance to Regionals. UK soared up the polls and reached as high as No. 7 in the national rankings during the season. The Wildcats finished second overall in the SEC and claimed the SEC East crown for the first time in program history.

For the fifth consecutive season, Skinner led the squad to more victories than the previous year. On Oct. 9, Skinner claimed his 100th career victory in Lexington with a 3-0 win over Auburn. Kentucky's fifth-year head coach reached the 100-win plateau faster than any other previous coach in the history of the program.

In postseason recognition, Kentucky matched its record of five players named to the All-SEC squads with Rumely and junior Sarah Mendoza tabbed to the first-team. Senior BriAnne Sauer would team with the duo to claim a school-best three All-America distinctions. Rumely was a second-team selection, with Mendoza and Sauer named honorable mention honorees.

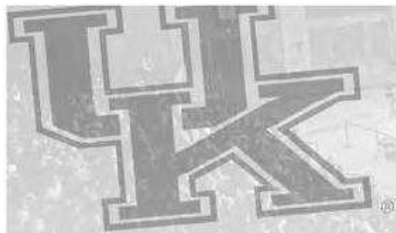

Although faced with a tough challenge of replacing three All-Americans from the previous season, the 2010 edition of the UK volleyball team continued its impressive streak of NCAA tournament runs. Kentucky capped its season with 17 victories for the sixth consecutive season and advanced to the NCAA Tournament yet again. Sophomore Stephanie Klefot headlined postseason accolades as she became the first player in school history to obtain SEC Libero of the Year honors, while Lauren Rapp earned All-America honorable mention honors.

The 2011 season saw the Wildcats back among the top-rated teams in the nation with UK capping a 28-6 season ranked No. 13 in the country and hosting the NCAA Regionals for the first time in program history. Led by Klefot, a second-team All-America selection, UK ventured on the road to College Station, Texas, and knocked off Dayton and the host-team Texas A&M Aggies to return to Lexington for its second appearance in the Regionals in the last three seasons. Kentucky went toe-to-toe with the tournament's No. 1 overall seed in Texas before the largest crowd in the Skinner era at Memorial Coliseum.

Klefot repeated as the SEC Libero of the Year and set a new-single season UK record with more than 600 digs. She also helped match a program-record with three All-America selections joined by junior Christine Hartmann and sophomore Whitney Billings. Billings became the youngest player under Skinner's direction to earn All-America status. Kentucky also matched a program-record with five All-SEC selections for the third time in four seasons in addition to 17 victories in the grueling SEC. For his efforts, Skinner earned AVCA All-South Region Coach of the Year accolades for the first time in his career.

The Wildcats have averaged 22 victories each season under Skinner's leadership and are one of just 16 teams in the nation to advance to the NCAA Tournament in each of the past seven seasons - including one of just 13 BCS level schools to achieve the feat.

In addition to on court success, Skinner has also led an impressive youth movement to Lexington, as first-year players have garnered nine SEC Freshman Player of the Week awards, including Rumely winning the 2006 SEC Freshman of the Year award. Rapp was pegged a 2007 All-SEC Freshman team honoree, and Becky Pavan was a unanimous selection to the All-SEC Freshman Team in 2008 and an honorable mention All-Region player in her first season. Billings in 2010 and Lauren O'Conner in 2011 continued the streak of at least one first-year player under Skinner's tutelage to earn All-SEC Freshman team honors.

Because of immediate success by UK's freshmen, Kentucky is a place top volleyball players in the country are choosing to play collegiately. All seven freshman classes have been ranked in the top-30 in the country including the 2012 class coming as the 15th best in the nation.

In addition to Skinner's success at Kentucky, he was selected as the head coach of the 2006 U.S. Junior Women's National Team. Skinner led the team to the gold medal in the 2006 Under-20 NORCECA Championships.

Prior to joining the Wildcats, Skinner spent five seasons as an assistant at Nebraska under John Cook and was named head assistant coach in 2003. During his tenure, the Huskers put together a 154-11 record and claimed the 2000 NCAA title with a perfect 34-0 record. The Huskers made a return trip to the Final Four in 2001 and advanced to NCAA regional semifinals or finals in every season after.

In Skinner's five years, Nebraska compiled a 97-3 record in Big 12 action and four Big 12 Championships. Skinner served as defensive coordinator at Nebraska and worked primarily with the middle blockers. He coached three women to six All-America honors during his five-year stay, including Melissa Elmer, who received her second All-America honor in 2004. The Huskers led the nation in blocking in four of the past five seasons.

A 1993 graduate of Ball State, Skinner was an outside attacker for the Cardinals and helped guide BSU to a 28-11 record and a third-place finish at the 1990 NCAA Championships. He was a team captain his final two seasons. While attending Ball State, Skinner also served on staff at the Asics Mun-ciana Volleyball Club, helping lead the 18-and-under squad to the U.S. Volleyball Association national runner-up finish in 1992.

A native of Muncie, Ind., Skinner spent three seasons as an assistant coach under Cook at Wisconsin, from 1994-96, aiding the Badgers to a 68-35 record and three postseason appearances, including the 1996 NCAA regional semifinals. Skinner returned to his alma mater in 1999, helping guide the Ball State men to wins over three nationally ranked teams and an 8-4 record at midseason in 2000 before leaving for Nebraska. That team finished the season ranked 13th in the USA Today/AVCA Top 25.

Skinner is married to former Nebraska assistant women's soccer coach Megan Bechtold Skinner. The couple has two daughters, Sophie and Isabel and a son, Eli.

KENTUCKY VOLLEYBALL 2012

KEITH SCHUNZEL

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND SEASON

Keith Schunzel begins his second season as an assistant coach at Kentucky after being tabbed to the role in April of 2011.

In his first season at Kentucky, the Wildcats turned in a 28-6 season and placed second overall in the Southeastern Conference. UK capped the season ranked among the nation's top-15 squads after advancing to the NCAA Regionals.

Schunzel is responsible for scouting and film breakdown for the Wildcats. He also organizes and executes the Kentucky Volleyball camps.

Schunzel came to Lexington following a one-year stint at North Texas in 2010.

An up-and-coming success story, Schunzel has spent time at Indiana and Purdue before joining the Mean Green in 2010. Schunzel, a Ball State alum, was recruited by Skinner during the UK coach's tenure on the staff of the Cardinals.

"I recruited and coached Keith as a player and have always thought I would enjoy working with him again at some point," Skinner said upon hiring Schunzel. "His strengths complement this program really well and we are very excited to hit the ground running. He was a tremendous player and leader in college and his great passion for the game will immediately impact Kentucky volleyball."

Schunzel helped lead the Mean Green to one of the most successful seasons in school history in 2010. North Texas posted a 20-13 overall record and an 11-5 mark in the Sun Belt conference while taking home the Western Division championship. Schunzel was responsible for directing setter Kayla Saey who notched 1,459 assists on the season for an average of 11.31 per stanza. North Texas charted 13.98 kills per set en route to an appearance in the Sun Belt semifinals for just the third time in school history.

Schunzel previously spent two seasons with Indiana helping the Hoosiers to its first winning campaign since 2000 in his first year in Bloomington. Indiana had won just 11 Big Ten matches in the four years prior to his arrival, but went 34-32 overall in his two seasons, and nearly qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 2008.

During his time in Bloomington, Schunzel helped recruit IU's 2009 class which was ranked No. 22 nationally by PrepVolleyball.com. In his first year at Indiana, Schunzel helped the IU setters tally 1,506 assists, the second highest total in five years.

Prior to his stop at Indiana, Schunzel was an assistant coach at Valparaiso where he helped guide the Crusaders to a 44-24 overall record and a pair of trips to the Horizon League championship. Schunzel began his collegiate career as a volunteer assistant at Purdue during its 2005 Sweet 16 season.

He began his coaching career in Muncie, Ind., coaching Muncie Central High School (2002-03) and the Munciana Volleyball Club (2001-04). The Muncie Central Bearcats captured the state title under Schunzel's direction in 2002 and advanced to the finals in 2003.

Schunzel was a standout on the court while playing for Ball State from 1999-2004. The Cardinals captured the Midwestern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association Championship and turned in a trip to the NCAA Final Four in 2002, his first of three seasons as a team captain. In his senior campaign he was tabbed a second team All-America selection and was an honorable mention All-America pick in his junior season. He was a first-team All-MIVA selection for three seasons and a second-team selection in his freshman season.

Following his career with Ball State, Schunzel was the starting setter for the VfB Friedrichshafen Volleyball Club in Germany from 2004-05.

A true volleyball family, Schunzel's wife, Briana, was the 2004 Mid-American Conference Player of the Year while setting for the Ohio University Bobcats.

LINDSEY GRAY-WALTON

ASSISTANT COACH • THIRD SEASON

Lindsey Gray-Walton begins her third season as an assistant coach with the Wildcats after being hired to the position in January of 2010.

Gray-Walton serves as the Wildcats' recruiting coordinator. The 2011 class is ranked in the top-30 in the country according to PrepVolleyball.com, while she helped haul in the 15th best class in 2012.

In her first season with the Blue and White, Gray-Walton helped guide Kentucky to its sixth consecutive winning season and sixth straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Gray-Walton and the Wildcats then totaled a 28-6 overall record, a second-place finish in the SEC, a top-15 national ranking to conclude the season and an appearance in the NCAA Regionals in 2011. UK played in front of the largest crowd during the Craig Skinner era in the Regional appearance against top-seeded Texas.

In January of 2012, Gray-Walton was named to the AVCA's "Top 30 Coaches Under 30."

Gray-Walton previously spent a year as the recruiting coordinator for the College of Charleston. She is a 2008 graduate of Georgia Tech where she was an All-Atlantic Coast Conference player.

"Lindsey is an exceptional addition to our staff," Skinner said upon Gray-Walton's hiring. "There is no doubt in my mind that she will help us continue going in the right direction. She is very bright, passionate, and competitive. Her talents will help us right away and keep her successful in coaching for years to come."

The College of Charleston went 18-13 overall and fell to Florida in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in 2009. Additionally the Cougars claimed the Southern Conference tournament crown for the conference's automatic bid to the national tournament in Gray-Walton's first season with the squad.

"I am thrilled with the opportunity in front of me," Gray-Walton said after taking her new post as an assistant at UK. "Coach Skinner, his staff and team have worked hard to build a successful program here at the University Kentucky, and I'm excited to be a part of this tradition. It truly is a great time to be a Kentucky Wildcat."

At Georgia Tech she was a member of three 20-plus win teams, including a 27-7 team that went 16-0 during her freshman season. That team went on to earn an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and defeat Georgia and No. 16 UC Santa Barbara before falling in the Sweet Sixteen to Minnesota. As a junior she was an All-ACC second team member and she also earned ACC Player of the Week honors in 2006.

Gray-Walton concluded her career ranking among the Yellow Jackets' all-time greats as she ranked sixth in career service aces, fifth in service aces per game (0.33) and sixth in the single-season record books with 53 aces in 2006.

Gray-Walton served as coach at summer camps both at Georgia Tech and Emory University throughout her playing career. She also served as the head coach of the Tsunami Volleyball Club based out of Atlanta, Ga., beginning in 2007.

A native of Olathe, Kan., she married Kyle Walton in May of 2012. Gray-Walton graduated in 2008 from Georgia Tech with a Bachelor of Science degree in management, with certificates in both marketing and management.

SUPPORT STAFF

Mandy Robbe
Director of Operations

Former University of Dayton standout Mandy Robbe joined the Kentucky volleyball staff as the Director of Operations in March of 2012.

"We are thrilled to have Mandy on board," UK coach Craig Skinner said upon her hiring. "Her passion for volleyball is evident in her experiences as a player and coach. She has a blue-collar work ethic and has shown great leadership in this sport. Kentucky volleyball will benefit greatly from what Mandy will bring to this program." Robbe is a former four-year letter winner for the Dayton Flyers who advanced to three NCAA Tournaments and won a combined five Atlantic 10 titles during her tenure.

"I am extremely excited to get started here at Kentucky," Robbe said. "Coach Skinner and his staff run an elite program, and I am honored to be a part of this team."

An exceptional all-around player, Robbe split time on the Flyers as a defensive specialist and an attacker. She was voted a team captain in her final season in 2008. Robbe's talents were abundant, as she was also an outstanding student earning a Presidential scholarship for academics in all four years of college.

Robbe's experience exceeds from the court of play, as she has coached on varying levels including Dayton Flyer camps and the Kingdom and Dayton Juniors Volleyball Clubs. For the previous three seasons she has also served as color analyst on the Dayton volleyball radio broadcast.

"This is a great hire for Kentucky and a great fit for Mandy," Dayton coach Kelly Sheffield said. "They are getting a tireless worker, and someone that will do anything for the sake of the team. Mandy will make the other coaches jobs easier, the players will absolutely love her, and I think she will enjoy working for Coach Skinner. I really enjoyed coaching Mandy and getting to know her even better following her playing career here at Dayton."

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference continues to flourish as a solid and competitive league in women's collegiate volleyball and has made stellar contributions in the sport.

The conference has sent at least two SEC teams to the NCAA Tournament in every season the last 22 years. The SEC had a team reach the Final Four seven of the 10 seasons in the '90s with the league having a team advance to the regional final nine of those 10 seasons. Since 2000, the SEC has had a team reach the Final Four three times and regional final five times.

The Tennessee Lady Vols won the SEC title in 2011, their second championship in program history and first outright. Tennessee shared the title in 2004 and also has three SEC Tournament Titles to its credit.

The SEC sent three teams to the 2011 NCAA Tournament: Florida, Kentucky and Tennessee. The Gators advanced to the Regional Final for the first time since 2005 while Kentucky reached the Sweet 16. Tennessee advanced to the Second Round. Since the inaugural SEC volleyball championship in 1979-80, many changes have occurred in the conference with volleyball. The addition of Missouri and Texas A&M to the league in 2012 increases the Eastern Division to six teams while seven teams will compete in the Western Division.

In 2009, the SEC entered into an unprecedented TV agreement with ESPN that provided exclusive coverage of SEC athletics. With the arrangement, SEC volleyball is now broadcast on three different platforms: ESPNU, FOX Sports South and CSS/CST. Live SEC volleyball coverage can now reach into 73 million homes nationwide on ESPNU, and in the SEC nine-state region, 25 million homes on FOX Sports South, and 10 million homes on CSS and CST.

MEMORIAL COLISEUM RECORDS

Memorial Coliseum is a tremendous home-court advantage for the Kentucky volleyball team, which plays all of its matches in the historic facility.

The Wildcats have compiled a 351-142 record, good for a .712 winning percentage in 35 seasons of play in the facility. In the last six seasons, Kentucky is an astounding 84-16 at home.

The Coliseum has played host to first-and second-round NCAA volleyball action as well as the 1983 NCAA Volleyball Final Four. It played host to NCAA Regionals in 2011 and is slated to host again in 2013. Memorial also currently serves as the home court for the UK women's basketball and gymnastics teams. The storied gymnasium also housed some of the greatest moments in UK men's basketball history as its home for 26 seasons from 1950 to 1976.

"On October 27, 2002, I sat in the stands in Memorial Coliseum and watched as the Kentucky volleyball team defeated the Georgia Bulldogs in a close five-game match. Despite what was happening on the court, the best part, for me, was what was going on in the stands. The fans were amazing. Students were cheering and getting rowdy over the littlest plays, parents were starting all the cheers, and, most importantly, the team seemed to be playing for not only themselves, but for the pride of all Kentucky athletics. I knew then that there was no other place for me. Kentucky would be home and I would make it my job to continue the UK tradition and make our fans proud."

-Former Wildcat Melissa Popp (2003-06)

UK's first appearance in the tournament was in 1983 under co-head coaches Marilyn McReavy and Mary Jo Pepler. In that tournament, UK advanced to the Sweet 16 before losing to Hawaii in the regional finals.

Kentucky advanced to a school-best seventh-straight NCAA Tournament in 2011. UK knocked off Dayton and host Texas A&M in the opening rounds of play to make its way back to Lexington for the NCAA Regionals on its home floor. UK gave No. 1-seeded Texas all it could handle before falling in four sets in front of the largest crowd to witness a volleyball match in the Craig Skinner era.

UK continued its historic stretch with a sixth-consecutive tournament appearance in 2010. The Wildcats traveled to West Lafayette, Ind., before falling in four sets to the No. 16 seed Purdue Boilermakers.

In 2009, UK hosted the first and second rounds for the second straight season and swiftly moved through the Lexington site with sweeps of Michigan State and 13th-seeded Oregon to advance to the Sweet 16 for the first time under Skinner.

Kentucky served as the host of the first and second rounds in 2008 for the first time since 1993. The Blue and White dropped a thrilling five-set match to Michigan in front of one of the largest crowds ever at Memorial Coliseum.

UK met Michigan State in the opening round of action in 2007 before falling in three sets to an impressive Spartan squad.

In 2006, the Wildcats headed north to West Lafayette, Ind., for a showdown with No. 20 Ohio, which Kentucky toppled in a five-game thriller to give the Cats their first NCAA Tournament win since Dec. 3, 1992. The Wildcats fell to host Purdue the next night in a 3-0 sweep.

In 2005, Kentucky squared off with 2005

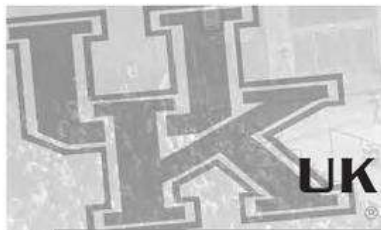

Atlantic Coast Conference champion Maryland in the Louisville Gardens. The Terrapins used powerful blocking to overpower the Cats 3-1 in the tournament's opening round. In 1993, Fran Flory's first year with the program, the Cats hosted the first and second rounds but suffered a 3-0 loss to Duke after a first-round bye.

UK made its best two showings in the tournament in 1983 and 1987 when the team won its first match at the South Regional Championships to be included among the final eight teams in the tournament before losing to Hawaii and Texas, respectively, by 3-1 scores in the regional final. McReavy and Pepler's '83 team and the '87 team coached by Kathy DeBoer both used Memorial Coliseum's home-court advantage to sweep through their first-round matches.

Collegiate volleyball championships began in 1970 with the first event held in Long Beach, Calif. Under the auspices of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women, the tournament continued to flourish through 1981 when the NCAA began its sponsorship. The NCAA has remained the host ever since.

The University of Kentucky and Memorial Coliseum were honored to serve as the hosts for the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championships in 1983, won by Hawaii over UCLA, 3-0.

The field for the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championships was expanded from 56 to 64 teams in 1998. The tournament's first expansion was in 1993, increasing the field from 32 to 48 teams.

KENTUCKY VOLLEYBALL 2012

UK'S VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

1979

In only its third year of existence, the Kentucky volleyball squad put together a 35-18-1 record and the Wildcats did not even drop a game against SEC foes to win the first SEC title in the sport of volleyball. UK, which played 44 of its 54 matches away from Memorial Coliseum, advanced to the AIAW National Championships in Carbondale, Ill., after finishing first in the Region II Tournament held in Lexington. UK Coach Delphine Nemeth was named the KWIC Coach of the Year. The title established the Wildcats, who also won the SEC Tournament with a perfect 5-0 sweep through league foes, as a volleyball power.

1980

Kentucky won an impressive 39 matches and again swept through the SEC Tournament en route to its second consecutive league crown. Kim Clay was named to the SEC All-Tournament team for the second consecutive season, joining teammate Sandy Glasscock. The Wildcats, who finished first in the AIAW Region II Tournament, notched their first win in the AIAW National Tournament that year with a 2-0 victory over Northwestern in Santa Barbara, Calif. The Cats did not drop a match to an in-state foe and were a perfect 6-0 at home, making them the team to beat in the SEC.

1983

The Kentucky volleyball team posted a school-best 44 victories as the Wildcats won their third SEC title with a perfect 5-0 league record. Lexington was the site of the SEC Tournament and the Cats defeated Ole Miss and Tennessee for their first tournament title under the single-elimination format. Karolyn Kirby was an all-SEC selection after hitting an impressive .311 on the season. Coaches Marilyn McReavy and Mary Jo Peppler were named SEC Coaches of the Year. UK was rewarded for its success in the regular season with its first NCAA Tournament berth and first-round hosting privileges. The Cats advanced past North Carolina and defeated Texas in its own regional in Austin, Texas before falling to perennial power Hawaii the following night. Kentucky finished fifth in the NCAA that season.

1987

Kentucky notched a 31-2 record, including a perfect 7-0 mark in SEC play and a 15-0 home record, to win its fourth SEC championship. After beginning the season 7-1, the Wildcats put together a 24-match win streak before falling to Texas in the NCAA Regional. The Cats breezed through the SEC Tournament in Baton Rouge, La., with sweeps of Mississippi State, Tennessee and Florida. UK coach Kathy DeBoer was named both the league's Coach of the Year and the NCAA Coach of the Year. Lisa Dausman was named the Most Valuable Player of the SEC Tournament and an All-SEC selection after hitting a stellar .336 on the year. UK swept N.C. State and Texas-Arlington in the NCAA Tournament before falling to the Longhorns on their home court to end the season.

1988

Kentucky claimed its second consecutive SEC title with a 26-7 record and a 7-0 mark in league play. Senior Lisa Bokovy was an All-SEC selection and also was named to the SEC All-Tournament team, completing her career with a then-school-best 1,657 kills, 3,739 digs, a .329 hitting percentage, 147 service aces and 1,057 blocks. She was the first Wildcat to notch more than 1,000 kills and 1,000 blocks in her career. The Cats swept through the SEC Tournament in Pensacola, Fla., with wins over LSU and Tennessee. After winning a 3-2 thriller at home in the first round of the NCAA Tournament against New Mexico, UK fell to Texas-Arlington in the NCAA Regionals in Austin, Texas.

UK AT THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Preceding the run of dominance in the Southeastern Conference by the Florida Gators during the 1990s, the Kentucky Wildcats set the standard of play in the conference during the '70s and '80s. From 1979 to 1989, the Wildcats won five SEC regular-season titles that preceded five SEC tournament championships. On two more occasions the Cats were the SEC Tournament runners-up, making 1981, 1982, 1985 and 1986 the only years during that 11-year span in which the Cats did not compete in the tournament's title match. While falling short of the championship match in those four seasons, UK was a three-time consolation champion ('82, '85, '86).

In the inaugural SEC Tournament of 1979, UK swept the competition behind Kim Clay and her first of three SEC All-Tournament selections, as the Cats won their first of two straight SEC tourney titles. With 1980 serving as the last year for the tournament's double-elimination format, UK successfully defended its home court against five opponents to win the crown.

UK claimed both regular season and tournament championship honors in 1983 with Marsha Bond leading the way and earning her third SEC All-Tournament team honors. Karolyn Kirby was also named to the All-Tournament team in '83. The Cats lost in the championship match in 1984 after finishing the regular season second in the conference. During these two years, the SEC Tournament featured just the top four teams and required just two wins to earn the title.

In 1987 and '88, the Cats capped off their fourth and fifth perfect SEC regular seasons by sweeping through the tournament each time. Laura Linder and Kim Thompson were named to the All-Tournament team on both occasions as head coach Kathy DeBoer's program reached elite status in college volleyball.

Although the Wildcats have not played in the championship match since 1989, a return to those previous days of glory appears within reach under second-year head coach Craig Skinner. The Cats posted their best league record since the 1993 season with a 10-6 mark in 2005.

The University of Kentucky is one of only four member institutions to earn multiple SEC Volleyball tournament titles and its five tournament championships are second only to Florida's 11.

Following the 2005 season, the league's coaches voted to play home-and-home series with each opponent instead of participating in a conference tournament.
